(iv) have a written collections management policy providing clear standards to guide institutional decisions regarding the collection, that is in regular use, available to the public upon request, filed with the commissioner for inspection by anyone wishing to examine it; and which, at a minimum, satisfactorily addresses the following subject areas:

(a) . . .

(b) . . .

(c) . . .

(d) . . .

(e) deaccession. The criteria and process (including levels of permission) used for determining what items are to be removed from the collections, which shall be consistent with paragraph (7) of this subdivision, and a statement limiting the use of any funds derived therefrom in accordance with subparagraph (vii) of this paragraph;

[(iv)] (v) ensure that collections or any individual part thereof and the proceeds derived therefrom shall not be used as collateral for a loan;

[(v)] (vi) ensure that collections shall not be capitalized; and

[(vi)] (vii) ensure that proceeds derived from the deaccessioning of any property from the institution's collection be restricted in a separate fund to be used only for the acquisition of collections, or the preservation, [protection] conservation or direct care of collections. In no event shall proceeds derived from the deaccessioning of any property from the collection be used for operating expenses or for any purposes other than the acquisition, preservation, [protection] conservation or direct care of collections.

2. Paragraph (7) of subdivision (c) of section 3.27 of the Rules of the Board of Regents is amended, effective June 8, 2011, as follows:

(7) Deaccessioning of Collections. An institution may deaccession an item in its collection only in a manner consistent with its mission statement and collections management policy and where one or more of the following criteria have been met:

(i) the item is inconsistent with the mission of the institution as set forth in its mission statement;

(ii) the item has failed to retain its identity;

(iii) the item is redundant;

(iv) the item's preservation and conservation needs are beyond the capacity of the institution to provide;

(v) the item is deaccessioned to accomplish refinement of collections;

(vi) it has been established that the item is inauthentic;

(vii) the institution is repatriating the item or returning the item to its rightful owner;

(viii) the institution is returning the item to the donor, or the donor's heirs or assigns, to fulfill donor restrictions relating to the item which the institution is no longer able to meet;

(ix) the item presents a hazard to people or other collection items; and/or

(x) the item has been lost or stolen and has not been recovered.

[(7)] (8) Education and Interpretation. The institution shall offer programmatic accommodation for individuals with disabilities to the extent required by law.

3. Subdivision (e) of section 3.27 of the Rules of the Board of Regents is amended, effective June 8, 2011, as follows:

(e) Annual reports. Each institution shall file with the commissioner an annual report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, which records the educational and cultural activities of the institution and presents an accurate statement of all financial operations. Each institution shall include in its annual report a list of all items or item lots deaccessioned in the past year and all items or item lots disposed of in the past year.
