(b) . . .

(c) . . .

(ii) A pharmacist may, based upon his or her professional judgment, accept an electronic prescription from a prescriber, to the pharmacy of the patient's choice, subject to the following requirements:

(a) . . .

(b) . . .

(c) . . .

(d) . . .

(e) [such prescriptions shall be processed in accordance with the requirements of section 29.7 of this Title, provided, however, that prescriptions for controlled substances shall be filled in accordance with the requirements of article 33 of the Public Health Law; and] except when the prescriber inserts an electronic direction to dispense the drug as written, the prescriber's electronic signature shall designate approval of an interchangeable biological product by a pharmacist. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or any other law to the contrary, when an interchangeable biological product is not available and the biological product originally prescribed is available and the pharmacist agrees to dispense the prescribed biological product for a price that will not exceed the price that would have been charged for the interchangeable biological substitute had it been available, substitution of an interchangeable biological product will not be required. If the interchangeable biological product is not available and a medical emergency situation, which for purposes of this section is defined as any condition requiring alleviation of severe pain or which threatens to cause disability or take life if not promptly treated, exists, then the pharmacist may dispense the prescribed biological product at his or her regular price. In such instances, the pharmacist must record the date, hour and nature of the medical emergency on the back of the prescription and keep a copy of all such prescriptions;

(f) [in accepting an electronic prescription, the pharmacist shall be subject to the applicable requirements of Part 29 of this Title relating to unprofessional conduct, including but not limited to section 29.1(b)(2) and (3) of this Title.] such prescriptions shall be processed in accordance with the requirements of section 29.7 of this Title, provided, however, that prescriptions for controlled substances shall be filled in accordance with the requirements of article 33 of the Public Health Law; and

(g) in accepting an electronic prescription, the pharmacist shall be subject to the applicable requirements of Part 29 of this Title relating to unprofessional conduct, including but not limited to section 29.1(b)(2) and (3) of this Title.
