Pursuant to sections 101, 207, 208, 209, 305, 309, and 3204 of the Education Law.

Subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (7) of subdivision (d) of section 100.5 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education is amended to read as follows:

(iii) The school principal shall chair a standing committee comprised of three teachers (not to include the student's teacher in the subject area of the Regents examination under appeal) and two school administrators (one of whom shall be the school principal) provided, however, that where a school does not employ the requisite number of teachers and/or administrators, the superintendent may appoint another school or district personnel who holds a pupil personnel service, teaching and/or administrative certificate or license to serve on such committee. The standing committee shall review an appeal within 10 school days of its receipt and make a recommendation to the school superintendent or, in the City School District of the City of New York, to the chancellor of the city school district or his/her designee, to accept or deny the appeal. The standing committee may interview the teacher or department chairperson who recommended the appeal, and may also interview the student making the appeal to determine that he or she has demonstrated the knowledge and skills required under the State learning standards in the subject area in question.
